Tax-credit eligibility

You may qualify for a tax credit to help offset the cost of providing health insurance if you:

- have fewer than 25 full-time equivalent employees
- pay employees an average of less than $50,000 annually
- contribute at least 50% of employee premium cost

Why you should use a Certified Insurance Agent

- They receive comprehensive training from Covered California™ to ensure they have the most current marketplace knowledge.
- They provide access to Covered California resources that help improve the enrollment process.
- They’re available to guide you through the sales process and provide ongoing support.

Getting started

1. Consider the advantages of offering your employees health insurance.
2. Review your budget and determine the best options for you and your employees.
3. Discuss plans and pricing options with a Certified Insurance Agent.
4. Contact your tax professional to determine if you qualify for tax credits.

The biggest thing to hit small business:

Small Business Health Options Program

Covered California’s™ for Small Business is a health insurance marketplace developed for small businesses. Covered California offers health plans with private insurance companies at affordable rates, with four defined levels of coverage — Bronze, Silver, Gold and Platinum — and standardized health benefits. Although not required, many small businesses choose to offer coverage to benefit their business.

Covered California Certified Insurance Agents are available to help select a plan that will both meet your budget and provide quality health insurance for your employees.

You’re not just doing this for their health:

Benefits for your business:

- Financial control
  You decide the level of coverage and how much to contribute toward premiums.

- Tax advantages
  You may be eligible for a tax credit after purchasing insurance through Covered California.

- Simple billing
  All health plan premiums are billed in one consolidated monthly invoice.

- Employee loyalty
  Covered California’s for Small Business offers high-quality, affordable health insurance to help attract and retain talented employees.

- Productivity
  Health insurance can help prevent illness, increase productivity and reduce employee absenteeism.

Benefits for your employees:

- Employee choice
  Employees decide which health plans and corresponding networks of doctors and hospitals meet their needs and lifestyles.

- Live support
  Plan selection and enrollment support from Certified Insurance Agents.

- Customer service
  Access to a multilingual service center for ongoing support.

Businesses eligible for Covered California:

- Employers with one to 100 eligible* employees
- Must have at least one W-2 employee

*An eligible employee works an average of 30 hours per week based on a month of work. You may decide to offer coverage to part-time employees who work between 20 and 29 hours per week. Ask your Certified Insurance Agent for a complete list of eligibility guidelines.

How Covered California for Small Business works:

- Research coverage options with your Certified Insurance Agent.
- Select the level of coverage you’d like to offer your employees.
- Define your contribution amount toward the cost of employee coverage (50% minimum) and their dependents’ coverage (optional).
- Your employees then select a specific plan that meets their needs within your level of coverage, with the assistance of your Certified Insurance Agent.
